

BY-LAWS
OF
BLUE RIDGE NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION
ADOPTED 1961

AMMENDED August 22, 2026

ORGANIZATION – The Blue Ridge Numismatic Association, founded in 1960 in the State of South Carolina, shall by its own action be known as a premier Regional Organization. It invites all worthy people of good character, who have a sincere interest in the subject of Numismatics, whether they collect coins, paper money or medals, or those generally interested in the subject.

OBJECTIVES – Its objectives are to encourage and promote the science of Numismatics by the acquirement and study of coins, paper money, and medals; to cultivate fraternal relations among collectors, dealers and kindred organizations in the United States and throughout the World, and to acquire and share numismatic knowledge within the community of Numismatics.

CONVENTIONS – A convention of the Blue Ridge Numismatic Association is to be held annually and is a source of intellectual profit and physic (intangibles) income to all who attend. Every current member is entitled to a voice in these gatherings. The Blue Ridge Numismatic Association shall by its own Action be known for an active bourse, lectures on numismatics and fellowship.

MEMBERSHIP - shall be decided by the elected members of the Board of Governors on a semi-annual basis as to categories of membership and fees/cost of each.

The Blue Ridge Numismatic Association puts forth the objectives and purposes set forth and does hereby adopt the following By- Laws and regulations.

ARTICLE I

MEMBERS – Eligibility and Privileges

Section 1 - Shall be decided by the elected members of the Board of Governors on an annual basis as to categories of membership and fees/cost of each.

Section 2 – Any member in good standing shall have the right to run in the election to the Board of Governors that is over the age of 18.

Section 3 –Annual dues shall be payable to the Secretary in advance on August 1st of each year. Any member who fails to pay his dues by October 1st shall stand suspended and not be afforded the benefits of the Association.

ARTICLE II

MEMBER – Resignation, Suspension and Expulsion

Section 1 – No member shall be permitted to resign from the Association while he is indebted to it in any manner or while charges are pending against the member.

Section 2 – Any member who fails to pay his dues as required shall stand suspended and be deprived of all the Association benefits and privileges.

(a) The names of those individuals suspended for non-payment of dues may be published in the Organization's communications by the Secretary.

Section 3 – Whenever written charges are brought against any member of conduct prejudicial to the welfare of the Association, such charges shall be signed by the person making them. The identity of the person making such charges shall not be made known, except to the Board of Governors. Such charges with particulars thereof shall be filed with the President, who shall thereupon furnish the accused member with a written copy thereof. The accused member shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to enter a written defense to such charges. The matter shall then be referred to the Board of Governors, which shall determine the case under such rules and regulations as it may adopt. The Board may dismiss charges, or it may censure, suspend or expel the accused member. Until the final decision of the Board, the accused member shall continue in good standing.
